RE: Central Telecom Long Distance, Inc. – Tariff Advice Letter No. 1

Dear Ms. Boyd:

Attached for filing with the South Carolina Public Service Commission (“Commission”) are revised Sheet Nos. 1, 2, 5 to 7, 13, 20 to 22, 26 to 31, Price List Sheet Nos. 1 to 5, and new sheets 7.1, 21.1, 21.2, 27.1 to 27.5, 29.1 to 29.7, 30.1 to 30.6 32.1, and Price List Sheets 4.1, 4.2, and 6 to 10 to Central Telecom Long Distance, Inc.’s South Carolina interexchange tariff, South Carolina P.S.C. Tariff No. 1, for incorporation into the Company’s Tariff. In light of the extensive amendments to the Company’s Tariff, an electronic copy of the Company’s entire tariff is attached.

With this submission the Company, makes significant amendments to its existing service offerings. The Company introduces new services designed so that each presubscribed (“1+”) service now has a corresponding casual calling and calling card service. The Company also reorganizes services by service type, provides additional information governing the application of the Tariff and service ordering, changing of service and service termination; amends service definitions to correspond with new service offerings; incorporates references to the Commission’s marketing Order No. 95-658; revises service descriptions; bundles directory assistance with certain calling plans at no additional recurring charge; and adds provisions governing universal service fund assessments and an optional ILEC statement fee. The Company also adds a cost recovery charge for commercial services. There are currently no commercial subscribers. And the Cost Recovery Charge for the Total Chat Value Plans is increased. Customer notice is being made by billing insert.
