4.3 Responsibilities of the Customer (cont'd)

the Telephone Company specifically authorizes said visit or repairs in advance of the occurrence and the Telephone Company agrees in advance to accept the liability for said repairs or visit.

Payment for all the Telephone Company service charges incurred through usage or direct action on the part of the Customer.

The Company may assign its rights or delegate its obligations under this Tariff to any affiliate or successor in interest. The Customer may not transfer or assign his or her rights or obligations associated with the Services hereunder without the Company's prior written consent.

4.4 Payment of Charges

The Customer is responsible for the payment of all charges for facilities and services furnished by the Telephone Company to the Customer, and to all users authorized by the Customer, regardless of whether those services are used by the Customer itself or shared with other persons.

For billing of monthly charges, service is considered to be established upon the confirmation of third party verification processes.

Usage charges will be billed monthly in arrears. Customer will be billed for all usage accrued beginning immediately upon access to the service. Customers will be billed for usage occurring during their specific 30-day billing cycle, which for purposes of computing charges shall be considered a month. The rates charged to a Customer will be the rates in effect on the first day of the Customer's billing cycle.

Monthly charges for all access service components, provided hereunder, are billed in advance of service and reflect the rates in effect as of the date of the invoice.

The Telephone Company will generate and mail customer bills seven (7) days prior to the close of the customer monthly billing period. Bills are due and payable as specified on the bill. Bills may be paid by mail or in person at the business office of the Telephone Company or an agency authorized to receive such payment. All charges for service are payable only in United State currency. Bills are due and payable as specified on the bill. Payments may be made by cash, check, money order, cashier's check or certain major credit cards.

The Telephone Company may assess a fee for returned checks which will not exceed the allowable amount in SC Code Section 34-11-70.

The Customer is responsible to pay the Telephone Company for all toll calls or other third party charges resulting from the origination of calls to points outside the local exchange and for charges or calls billed to the Customer's number.

If service is suspended/disconnected by the Telephone Company in accordance with the provisions of the Tariff and later restored, restoration of service will be subject to all applicable reconnection charges.

5.5. Long Distance Services for Business (Cont'd)

Business Service Packages

The following bundles consist of regulated and non-regulated services (e.g. Charter Business® Video and Internet are not under regulation by the Commission). Regulated services are offered as described in this tariff. The discounts shown are based on actual purchase and continuation of the bundle throughout the specified time period. No feature or product substitutions are allowed. Refer to Appendix B for all rates.

Services listed under Charter Business Bundle are not eligible to be sold with Charter Business Voice Trunk Service unless specifically noted nor with Private Line Service (as defined in Tariff No. 3) nor with Charter Business Fiber Internet.
