2. GENERAL REGULATIONS – CONDITIONS OF OFFERING

2.1 DEFINITIONS

Accessories

Devices which are mechanically attached to, or used with, the facilities furnished by the Company and which are independent of, and not electrically, acoustically, or inductively connected to, the communications path of the telecommunications system.

Authorized User

A person, firm, corporation or other entity that either is authorized by the customer to use local exchange services or is placed in a position by the customer, either through acts or omissions, to use local exchange services.

Commission

Refers to the South Carolina Public Service Commission or any successor agency.

Company

Refers to Qwest Communications Company, LLC, the issuer of this Tariff.

(T)

Contractual Service Agreement

Each Contractual Service Agreement is an individually negotiated contract offering tailored to meet the telecommunications needs of the customer(s) for whom the offering was designed. Each Contractual Service Agreement contains a service, or combination of services, and includes supplemental terms and conditions, including without limitation, prices, waivers and alternative pricing structure based upon volume, term, utilization and other needs related to the provision and receipt of telecommunication service(s) under this Tariff: Special provisioning flexibility; special network monitoring; special outage credit provisions; special "turnkey" operation; and other specially developed features, functionalities or undertakings. A Contractual Service Agreement may also address, or be responsive to special competitive conditions that exist at the time a Contractual Service Agreement is agreed to between the Company and a customer.

Unless otherwise specifically provided for under each Option set forth in this Tariff, each Option is available to all similarly situated customers and will be provided pursuant to the identical or substantially similar terms and conditions.
